Is it worth getting a Tax Depreciation Schedule for my property?

Many landlords are still uncertain about whether they should obtain a Tax Depreciation Schedule for their investment property!

A Tax Depreciation Schedule will identify deductions for the oldest most basic of properties to average and higher quality investment properties. Unfortunately, far too many investors don't realise the benefits available to them.

We strongly encourage every landlord to enquire about Tax Depreciation Schedules for their properties as a means to maximising their investment return.

Landlord Insurance

It is essential that you have Landlord Insurance on all your rental properties.

This insurance not only covers damage caused by tenants but can cover a wide range of other items depending on your insurance company.

Please play it safe and organise your today!
